

A close-up photograph of a dark wine bottle being poured into a snifter glass. The glass is partially filled with red wine, and a stream of wine is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic splash. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with a white patio umbrella and a wooden chair, suggesting a relaxed atmosphere.

loreleionthornton Cheers to HAPPY HOUR! Tonight at Lorelei we're taking you on a tour of Northern Italy.

Thanks to the cooler climate, wines from northern regions of Italy often feature grapes that take longer to ripen. If harvested before reaching full maturity, these grapes can produce wines with brighter acidity and crisp, refreshing notes.
